CHAMPIONS AT HOME EAGER TO CLEAN UP FOR BOSTON

No "Cy" Young to Baffle
Them To-Day—Admit He Is a Wonder.

BY BOZEMAN BULGER.

A merry chuckle spread itself over the anatomy of Frank Chance, of Chicago, Ill., U. S. A., this morning. It was a chuckle that was not a laugh, for it was told him that New York had fallen before the curves of Young "Cy" Young, as did the Cubs when the cyclone struck them nearly a fortnight ago.

Pittsburg has also suffered from the pranks of this young left-hander, or left-hander Young. (It worked both ways with the K silent, as in built.)

In Pittsburg there is a well-defined snicker, but the Giants, notwithstanding their appetite to win, humor and pathos, fail to see the joke. With them it is a tragedy with a capital T.

They had fondly expected to return home dangle three educated and renowned scamps from their belts, but instead they must suffer the same ignominy as did their two rivals, and the discrepancy must be made up at the Polo Grounds to-day. The Giants took the same club, but with another pitcher that's different.

But, seriously, you can't get around this fact "Cy" Young, the junior, is a great pitcher. The Giants bank upon him and Vic Willis as two of the most dangerous men in the league. In that same in Boston the champions played wonderful ball. Acting on the only opportunity offered, two runs were scored. But right there they shot their bolt. After that they fought every inch of ground, but about his runs are not secured with promptness and dispatch. If you don't believe it, take a nice, round ball, one pitch and a hat on a morning and go out and try it.

All in all, the champions of the world got three safe cracks, and there's no use of going further into ancient history. The best thing to do is to rest content, go out to the Polo Grounds to-day and watch the play.

In the mean time the New York players are laughing at an experience in the past life of Samuel Morris. The incident came to light last night as the players were sitting in a Pullman smoker getting ready for bed. "Talking about sleepers," said Morris, "you fellows ought to have seen me when I first started East. I was a rule for fair, but there were others. We had a club at Oakland, Cal., that went up in smoke and our whole team was hired to go to Omaha, Neb., and play in the league. Of course we took sleepers for the big journey, but to be honest, I'll admit that not one of us had ever seen the inside of a sleeping car before in our lives. Several of the boys hung their trousers on the bell cord, but that's not the funny part of the story. We had our kripe full of baseball bats, and for fear of trouble we appointed a player each night to sit up and watch the kripe. On the third night it came my turn, but I got so sleepy at 12 o'clock I got down and went to bed. I was going to bed if every day—thing in the car was so cold. Strange to say, I got up trembling the next morning only to find everything O. K."

SKATER DAVIDSON BREAKS
RECORDS ON THE ROLLERS

John Davidson, cyclist and skater, created two new world's records for the running high and broad jump on roller skates at Madison Square Garden Ring.

His broad jump was about two feet better than the record, his leap being over seven chairs, one behind the other.

His high jump was about three inches better than the record, as he was that height when he went over. His first jump was 3 feet 6 inches, when the bar was raised two inches. He experienced no difficulty in getting over this. Another two inches was added for the third attempt, which he cleared easily.

To accomplish his record-breaking feat Davidson started about twenty-five yards from the standards. He increased his speed at every stride. He gradually crouched, and when at the proper distance for the jump he suddenly, by an immense effort, lifted his body from the floor. The impetus he had gathered from his great speed carried him clear over the tape and landed him on the other side on a perfect balance. He travelled half the distance about the rink before he could stop himself.

STEWARDS DISMISS
GO BETWEEN PROTEST

(Special to The Evening World.)
SHEEPSHEAD BAY, June 30.—The stewards of the Sheephead Bay Jockey Club at a meeting to-day dismissed the protest of F. R. Hitchcock against the winning of Go Between in the Suburban on the ground that he had been improperly described on the program. The claim was made that Go Between was not a gelding but a stallion. The jockey club decided that there was no ground for complaint.

Woolwich goes to $2,050. The Avon A. C. baseball team, one of the strongest semi-professional baseball teams in the city, will play the strong Woolwich A. C. at Mt. Vernon to-morrow. The Avons defeated the Woolwiches in a seven-inning game by the score of 2 to 0. Chalmers, the Avon pitcher, will do the pitching for them to-morrow, with Clarke behind the bat.
